SLÍ CHOLMCILLE

14^ú Lúnasa

6.15in – 8.00in, Port na Long, Halla na Cathrach Saor in Aisce

Anuraidh, rinneadh ceiliúradh ar sheantraidisiún oilithreachta a bhain le Colmcille i nDoire don chéad uair le breis is ceithre chéad bliain. I mbliana, tá i gceist leanúint den traidisiún nua-athbheoite seo. Cuirfear fáilte roimh gach duine, idir mhuintir na háite agus chuairoteoirí, a bheith páirteach linn sa turas gearr an-suimiúil seo ó Phort na Long go dtí an Teampall Mór.

Last year, an ancient medieval pilgrimage tradition relating to Saint Colmcille was celebrated in Derry for the first time in more than four hundred years. This year, it is intended to continue this newly revived tradition. We hope as many as possible, locals and visitors, will participate in this celebration and follow the pipers and singers on Cosán na nOilithreach, the actual pilgrim trail from Port na Long (on the banks of the Foyle) to the site of An Teampall Mór the medieval cathedral of Derry – a short but very fascinating journey.

Cruinneoidh lucht na hoilithreachta ag Port na Long (taobh thiar de Halla na Cathrach) agus siúlfaidh siad suas Cosán na nOilithreach, meirgí ar foluain agus iomainn á gceol agus píobaireacht á seinm.

The pilgrimage group will assemble at Port na Long (behind Guildhall) and proceed up Cosán na nOilithreach (Magazine Street) to the sound of singing and piping and with banners held high.

An Chéad Stad: An Chéad Eaglais Phreispitéireach, Doire. Ceol ó na Caimbeulaich, Albain agus Cór an Ghrianáin, Doire agus léitheoirí (Stiúrthóir: Mura Ní Chanáin).

The First Stop: First Derry Presbyterian Church. A celebration of sacred song and readings from Na Caimbeulaich, Scotland and Cór an Ghrianáin, Derry (Director: Mura Ní Chanáin).

An Dara Stad: Eaglais Naomh Agaistín. Creidtear gur anseo a thóg Colmcille a chéad mhainistir. Ceol ó na Caimbeulaich, Albain.

The Second Stop: St. Augustine's Church, believed to be the site of Colmcille's first monastery. Music by Na Caimbeulaich from Scotland.

7.50in

An Stad Deireanach: Eaglais Cholmcille, An Túr Fada: suíomh An Teampaill Mhóir. Ceol ó Chór an Ghrianáin.

Final Stop: St. Columba's Church, the Long Tower: the site of the medieval cathedral An Teampall Mór
